Objective

As a student majoring in D4 Management of Information Technology at the Vocational Faculty of Universitas Negeri Surabaya, I present myself with a high level of enthusiasm in the field of programming and software operation. Possessing diverse skills, including in statistics, data analysis, web development, e-commerce, game development, and other capabilities, I am ready to make a meaningful contribution. Additionally, strong teamwork skills, leadership qualities, event organization abilities, public speaking, and effective coordination are additional assets I possess. With the experience I have gained in handling various projects in website programming, game development, UI/UX Design, and statistics, I am ready to face new challenges and continue to grow in my career.
